

THE BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
2-4 APRIL 2014
ROYAL HOLLOWAY, UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

DRAFT TIMETABLE (14 MARCH 2014)

WEDNESDAY (2 APRIL)

11:00 – REGISTRATION BEGINS

12:30-14:30

McCrea 201 Terrains of Resistance in Neoliberal India I

Chair: Alf Gunvald Nilsen (University of Bergen)

Subhir Sinha (SOAS), Subalterns, the NGO form and the outside/inside of mainstream politics and development in India

Kenneth Bo Nielsen (University of Oslo) & Alf Gunvald Nilsen (University of Bergen), Law-struggles and hegemonic processes in neoliberal India: Gramscian reflections on land acquisition legislation

Srila Roy (University of Witwatersrand), Empowering women, producing subjects: feminist politics in liberalized India

Comment: The audience

McCrea 219 The Longue Duree of Intellectual History I

Chair: Benjamin Zachariah (Heidelberg University)

Oyndrila Sarkar (Heidelberg University), Scientific innovators or 'native informants': Radhanath Sikdar, Mohsin Husain and the great trigonometrical survey of India

Ana Jelnikar (University of Primorska), Hospitality in South Asia: ancient legacy, modern tool of resistance

Chandak Sengoopta (Birkbeck College), In the prisonhouse of 'humanism': Satyajit Ray and the West

Comment: The audience

McCrea 325 Work in Post-Liberal India: Continuities & Transformations

Chair: Phillippa Williams (Queen Mary)

Tom Chambers (University of Sussex), Informality, supply chain capitalism and Muslim labour in India

Barbara Harriss White (Oxford University), Labour and petty production: evidence, theory and praxis

Diego Maiorano (University of Liege), The politics of the right to work

Comment: The audience

McCrea 336 Mountain Economies and Lived Realities of Culture

Chair and commentator: TBC

Neelam Raina (Middlesex University)

Emma Dick

Mari Miyomoto (National Museum of Ethnology, Japan), Slaughter and Buddhism in contemporary Bhutan

IB 243 Negotiating Gender and Rights in Changing Landscapes

Chair: Clare Midgley (Sheffield Hallam)

Anjali Datta (University of Cambridge), 'Locating' women in the Chardiwari: Muslim marginalization in post-partition Delhi

Andrea Fleschenberg (Quaid-i-Azam University), Democratization and empowerment post-2001: tales of political participation from Afghanistan

Tahrat N. Shahid (University of Oxford), Sexual equality in family laws for Muslims in Bangladesh: a fear of change

Comment: The audience

IB 244 The wider world of social marginalization in India

Chair: Hugo Gorringer (University of Edinburgh)

Vedita Cowaloosur (University of Warwick), Class, caste and the English language in India

Shruti Chaudhry (University of Edinburgh), Marriage among the dalits of western Uttar Pradesh

Jacob Copeman (University of Edinburgh), Naming trouble: caste, secularism and onomastic politics in urban north India

M. Raisur Rahman (Wake Forest University), Qasbahs, Muslims and the question of being a minority: social and cultural order in colonial India

Comment: The audience

14:30-15:00 – REFRESHMENT BREAK

15:00-17:00

McCrea 201 Terrains of Resistance in Neoliberal India II

Chair: Kenneth Bo Nielsen (University of Oslo)

Nandini Nayak (Ambedkar University), Rights, resistance and citizenship: claiming the 'right to work' in southwest Madhya Pradesh

Prakash Kashwan (University of Connecticut), Radical reforms: what do they miss?

Patrick Oskarsson (University of Gothenberg), The creation of mining as a subject of resistance in central India

Comment: The audience

McCrea 219 The Longue Duree of Intellectual History II

Chair: Ali Raza (Zentrum Moderner Orient)

Benjamin Zachariah (Heidelberg University), Chasing an idea

Utathya Chattopadhyaya (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign), To see the sea: the Indian Ocean and its historiographical construction

Comment: The audience

McCrea 325 Roundtable: Development and Welfare States in South Asia

Chair: Deepta Chopra and Gabriele Koehler (Institute of Development Studies)

Deepta Chopra (Institute of Development Studies), The Indian case: towards a rights-based welfare state?

Gabriele Koehler (UN Research Institute for Social Development), Nepal: social policy in a nascent welfare state

Comment: Barbara Harriss White (Oxford University)

McCrea 336 Transnational political & religious networks in South Asia

Chair: Humayun Ansari (Royal Holloway)

Sana Haroon (University of Massachusetts Boston), Mosque-building in Mauritius and Burma: North Indian Muslims in the Empire

Clare Midgley (Sheffield Hallam University), Pandita Ramabai and liberal religious networks between India, Britain and the United States

Somak Biswas (Jawaharlal Nehru University), Passages to India: politics of affect in an age of empire, 1895-1925

Marina Martin (University of Pretoria), Project codification: Legal legacies of the British Raj on the Indian indigenous mercantile credit institution Hundi between 1969-1978

Comment: The audience

IB 244 Constitution Making in Asia

Chair and comment: Elisabeth Leake (Royal Holloway)

Harshan Kumarasingham (University of Cambridge), Constitution Making and Decolonisation in the Eastminsters

Asanga Welikala (University of Edinburgh), 'Specialist in Omniscience'? nationalism, constitutionalism and Sir Ivor Jennings' Engagement with Ceylon

Roger D. Long (East Michigan University), The 'Eastminster' system: Sir Ivor Jennings and the trials and tribulations of constitution making in Pakistan

17:15-18:30 – GECN session

19:00 – DINNER (ALL-INCLUSIVE PARTICIPANTS ONLY)

THURSDAY (3 APRIL)

8:00 – REGISTRATION BEGINS

9:00-11:00

McCrea 201 Dalit Lives: Dynamism and Discrimination in India and Beyond

Chair: Jacob Copeman (University of Edinburgh)

Karim Kapadia (independent scholar), Dalit Pentecostal Metropolitans in South India

Hugo Gorringe (University of Edinburgh), Untouchability Unlimited? caste discrimination, hierarchy and politics in contemporary Tamil Nadu

Ishita Mehrotra (Rajiv Gandhi Institute for Contemporary Studies), No Leap Forward: change and continuity in lives of rural Dalit women

David Mosse (SOAS), Meena Dhanda (University of Wolverhampton), Annapurna Waughray (Manchester Metropolitan University), Negotiating caste: public discourse and legal change in the UK

Comment: The audience

McCrea 219 The Local Life of Big Ideas: Villages as Sites of Diversity, Politics and History in South Asia

Chair and comment: Patricia Jeffery (SOAS)

- Tommaso Sbriccoli (SOAS), Small stories and epochal trends: changing voting patterns in a village in Central India
- Tina Otten (SOAS, University of London), Ideas of the Indian state and their implementation in a village in the Kandhamals, Odisha
- Alice Tilche and Edward Simpson (SOAS), Take me to London! migration and nationalism in Central Gujarat
- Rajiv Verma (University of Hohenheim), Village outcastes, entitlements and the struggle against corruption: a case-study of Samajik Shodh Evam Vikas Kendra in rural Bihar, India

McCrea 325 Bridging Regions: Emerging Trends in India's Interactions with Southeast Asia

- Chair: TBC
- Rahul Advani (National University of Singapore), Culture and consumption: India in Southeast Asia
- Laldinkima Sailo (National University of Singapore), 'Looking east' through northeast: development and connectivity
- Sinderpal Singh (National University of Singapore), India-Southeast Asia relations: unpacking the narrative(s)
- Comment: The audience

McCrea 336 Democracy at Work in Post-Independence India

- Chair: Paul McGarr (University of Nottingham)
- Gaia von Hatzfeldt (University of Edinburgh), Agonistic Democracy: the endurance of the Gandhi and Nehru legacy
- Patrick Clibbens (Oxford University), Nasbandi kā vaqt? time, sterilisation and the Indian Emergency
- Rebecca Williams (University of Warwick), The 'inarticulate premise': family planning under the Emergency in India, 1975-77
- Comment: The audience

IB 243 Liberalisation's Children? Youth, Subjectivities, and Aspirations in India

- Chair: Sneha Krishnan (University of Oxford)
- Sneha Krishnan (University of Oxford), Gender, student politics and aspiration in the neoliberal university
- Divya Nambiar (University of Oxford), Deconstructing "success": youth encounters with skill training programmes in Rajasthan
- Phillippa Williams (Queen Mary), Aspirations, agency, angst: Muslim graduates in New Delhi's post-liberal economy
- Comment: Jamie Cross (University of Edinburgh)

IB 244 South Asia's Science and Environments

- Chair and comment: Daniel Haines (Royal Holloway)
- Graham P. Chapman (Lancaster University) and Kalyan Rudra (West Bengal Wasteland Development Corporation), Time Streams: history and rivers in Bengal
- Gautam Chando Roy (Vidyasagar University), Science education in a colonial situation: Bengali children's literature, c.1880- c.1920
- Markus Kröger (University of Helsinki), The politics of iron mining in India

Abin Thomas (King's College London), The bioeconomy of 'obligation', 'empathy' and 'donation': contemporary reflections on organ donation in Kerala

Main Lecture Theatre Muslim Politics and Identity in South Asia

Chair: Markus Daechsel (Royal Holloway)

Tanweer Fazal, Emerging Muslim middle class in India and the shifting political discourse

Heewon Kim (SOAS), United Progressive Alliance government, Muslims, and public sector employment: an unfulfilled promise?

Yaqoob Bangash and Sarmad Hussain (Forman Christian College), Pakistan's May 2013 General Elections: monitoring the democratic experiment

Comment: The audience

11:00-11:30 – REFRESHMENT BREAK

11:30-12:45 – ROUNDTABLE: South Asia and its Wider Worlds

Magnus Marsden (University of Sussex)

Paul M. McGarr (University of Nottingham)

Clare Midgley (Sheffield Hallam)

Alistair Pinkerton (Royal Holloway)

13:00-14:00 – LUNCH

14:15-16:15

McCrea 201

South Asian Diasporas and the Negotiation of British Multiculturalism(s)

Chair and comment: Humayun Ansari (Royal Holloway)

Ed Anderson (University of Cambridge), Hindutva, political representation, and the public articulation of Hindu identity in multicultural Britain

Jed Fazakarley (University of Oxford), The British campaign for Bangladeshi independence: the emergence and recognition of a 'new ethnicity'

Sundeep Lidher (University of Cambridge), Unwelcome subjects, undesirable multiculturalisms: the evolution of immigration control in Britain, 1945-1962

John Zavos (University of Manchester), Social action and cultures of service in the BrAsian city

McCrea 219

Architecture and the Politics of Space

Chair: Edward Simpson (SOAS)

Tariq Jazeel (University College London), Architecture and Auroville: modernity, modernism and the aesthetic politics of utopianism

Deborah Sutton (Lancaster University), Inhabited pasts: the politics of space and urban monuments in New Delhi

Pushpa Arabindoo (University College London), The politics of global architecture in India

Claire Dwyer (University College London), South Asian religious architecture in the diaspora: recreation and reinvention

Comment: The audience

McCrea 325 Ideas of the Frontier in South Asia

- Chair and comment: Sujit Sivasundaram (University of Cambridge)
Tom Simpson (University of Cambridge), Tangled lines: bordering and frontier-making in colonial north-east India, 1830-1930
Daniel Haines (Royal Holloway), The narrow frontier: local agency in Punjab's international borderland, 1952-1955
Elisabeth Leake (Royal Holloway), A frontier undone: the Durand Line and the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan

McCrea 336 Patterns of Conflict in South Asia: National and International Dimensions

- Chair and comment: Lion König (Heidelberg University)
Lion König (Heidelberg University), Communal violence and cognitive clashes in India: Hindus, Muslims and the conceptual problem of secularism
La Toya Waha (Heidelberg University), Analysing Buddhist monastic violence: identity and conflict in Sri Lanka
Yang Lu (Heidelberg University), From the conflict- to the post-conflict stage: the India-China border dispute and the 'news war'
Bernhard Beitelmaier (Heidelberg University), Conflicting concepts: exploring Indian strategic culture(s) and the impact on security

IB 244 Early modern cultural & artistic interactions in South Asia

- Chair: Francis Robinson (Royal Holloway)
Marc Tiefenauer (Université de Lausanne), The realm of the Lord of Death as depicted by an eighteenth century Persian translation of the Ramayana
Blain Auer (Université de Lausanne), Persian literati, acculturation and Persianate identity in the early Delhi courts of South Asia
Apurba Chatterjee (Uppsala University), Imaging the authority: the early British presence in Bengal, 1756-1793
Sara Mondini (Ca' Foscari University of Venice), The mihrab of the Jami Masjid of Bijapur
Comment: The audience

Main Lecture Theatre A Long History of Politics in Pakistan

- Chair: Markus Daechsel (Royal Holloway)
Muhammad Mushtaq (University of Gujrat), Regional identities in the quest for separate provinces: a new challenge for the Pakistani federation
Fakhar Bilal (Quaid-i-Azam University), A survey of Nawab Sadiq of Bahawalpur State's relations with British administrators
Raza Naeem (Lahore School of Economics), 'Dear Uncle Sam, From Pakistan, With Love': Manto's 'Letters to Uncle Sam' in His Time, and In Ours
Mushtaque Ali Abbasi (Forman Christian College), The politics of One Unit and the interests of troika: a case study of Sindh
Comment: The audience

16:15-16:45 – REFRESHMENT BREAK

16:45-18:00 – PLENARY SESSION

Professor Francis Robinson (Royal Holloway), South Asia and West Asia from the Delhi Sultanate to the Present; Security, Resources and Influence

18:00-19:00 – DRINKS RECEPTION

19:30 – DINNER (PRE-REGISTERED PARTICIPANTS ONLY)

FRIDAY (4 APRIL)

10:00-12:00

McCrea 201 Migrants, Refugees, Infiltrators

Chair: Phillippa Williams (Queen Mary)

Sahana Ghosh (Yale University), Borderwork: producing certainty along and across the India-Bangladesh border

Antara Datta (Royal Holloway), The refugee within: Indian Muslims and the war of 1971

Subhankar Ghosh (University of Oxford), Identity at the Gates of Politics: Muslims in Contemporary West Bengal

Comment: The audience

McCrea 219 Gender Empowerment in South Asia: A Double Burden?

Chair: Deepta Chopra (Institute of Development Studies)

Zahra Nesbitt-Ahmed (Institute of Development Studies), Public policies and an agenda of care: the case of Nepal

Alexandra Wanjiku Kelbert (Institute of Development Studies), Gender roles and global crises: the case of Bangladesh

Deepta Chopra, Making the connection: caring for child rights and women's rights

Comment: The audience

McCrea 325 Cultures of State and Identity in the Diaspora

Chair: Ed Anderson (University of Cambridge)

Ravinder Barn (Royal Holloway) and Mujibur Rehman (Jamia Millia Islamia Central University), Examining the role and relationship among the Indian diaspora, state and Indian democracy

G.S. Jandu (Royal Anthropological Institute), Stereotyped Sikh images in diaspora: public portrayals and citizenry identity politics

Jasjit Singh (University of Leeds), The cultural value of South Asian arts in Britain

Comment: The audience

McCrea 336 Urban Citizenship and Political Change across South Asia

Chair and comment: Louise Tillin (King's College London)

Thomas Cowan (King's College London), Fragmented subjects: space and the political in Gurgaon, India's 'Millennial' city: Migrant workers and their claims to the city

Matt Birkinshaw (London School of Economics), Nehru's new mission and the Aam Admi: infrastructure, informality and politics in Indian cities

Nina Kaysser (SOAS), Contesting urban spaces: socio-economic change and Hindu-Muslim violence in India

Shankar Jayaram (King's College London), From bottom-up to top-down: political contestation, Dalit politics and the right to the city in Uttar Pradesh

IB 243 Historical Networks in Colonial South Asia

Chair: Sana Haroon (University of Massachusetts Boston)

Kate Boehme (University of Cambridge), Smuggling India: deconstructing western India's illicit export trade, 1818-1870

Alexander Bubb (Linnaeus University), Class, cotton and woddaries: the business networks of railway contractors in the Bombay Presidency, 1855-1870

Devyani Gupta (University of Cambridge), The Post Office of British India: a story of mail movement, imperial expansion and global networks of exchange

Comment: The audience

IB 244 Arts, Media and Identity in South Asia

Chair: Markus Daechsel (Royal Holloway)

Muhammad Azfar Nisar and Ayesha Masood (Arizona State University), The nostalgic detective: Identity formation in detective fiction of Pakistan

Najia Mukhtar (SOAS), Approaching religious difference differently: ideas and critiques in contemporary Pakistan

Nirmal Kumar (Vienna University), Why small regions get a film: analysis of Bhojpuri cinema in the context of India

Piyush Roy (University of Edinburgh), Rasa and Phalke: tracing Natyasastra influences in the auteurship of the father of Indian cinema

Comment: The audience

13:00-14:00

Main Lecture Theatre GECN session