

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON RELIGIOUS REVIVALISM AND POLITICAL EXTREMISM IN PAKISTAN AND BANGLADESH

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR STRATEGIC STUDIES (IISS)
FRIDAY, 16 DECEMBER 2005

Programme

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| 10-10:30 a.m. | Welcome coffee and introduction by Sir Hilary Synnot |
| 10:30-11:30 a.m. | Burzine Waghmar (School of Oriental and African Studies)
Topic: Orientalist remarks on South Asian dhimmis .
Discussant: Jeevan Deol (School of Oriental and African Studies) |
| 11:30-12:30 p.m. | Ashutosh Mishra (Institute of Defense Studies and Analyses)
Topic: The Pakistani military and the future of democracy and Islamisation in Pakistan.
Discussant: Mohammad Waseem (Quaid-i-Azam University) |
| 12:30-1:30 p.m. | Lunch |
| 1:30-2:30 p.m. | Jérémie Codron (CERI, Paris)
Topic: The Islamist movements and the national question: Revolutionary ideals and political practice in Bangladesh.
Discussant: Rajat Ganguly (University of East Anglia) |
| 2:30-3:00 p.m. | Coffee break |
| 3:00-4:00 p.m. | Marion Mueller (Heinrich Böll Foundation, Lahore)
Topic: Women and the politics of the religious right in Pakistan and Bangladesh.
Discussant: Yunas Samad (University of Bradford) |
| 4:00-5:00 p.m. | Alexander Evans (Foreign and Commonwealth Office)
Topic: Madrassahs in slow motion.
Discussant: Farzana Shaikh (University of Cambridge) |

Sponsoring organisations

British Association for South Asian Studies (BASAS)
Politics of South Asia Specialist Group of the Political Studies Association (PSA)
South Asia Programme of the International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS)
